

Ms. Hannah's 3rd Grade Class

Book Mobile

Hi class! We are going to create a book mobile from a book of your choosing. What is a book mobile? A book mobile is used to show your understanding of the plot, setting, point of view, characters, author, and title of your story.

Supplies needed:

1. Hanger
2. Note cards or card stock
3. Ribbon, string, thread, etc.
4. Scissors
5. Hole punch
6. Markers, pens, colored pencils, etc.
7. Washi Tape and stickers (optional)
8. Ipad camera, printer (optional)

Book Report Project:

1. Read a book at your level (Ms. Hannah will approve your book before you start reading it)
2. Write down important notes about the plot, setting, characters, and what point of view the book is written in while reading the book
3. Create a book mobile to share with your peers

Requirements on the back of the paper →

Ms. Hannah's 3rd Grade Class

Book Mobile Requirements:

1. Create a “plot” card and tie it to the hanger
  - a. Tie another card to the plot card to summarize in at least 5 sentences the plot of the story in order
  - b. Decorate the plot card and plot summary card

2. Create a settings card and tie it to the hanger
  - a. Tie another card(s) to the settings card to make a chain
  - b. Choose one or two settings from your story (each setting will have their own card)
    - i. Either draw and color a picture of the setting, take a picture of the illustration of the setting in the book, or take a picture in real life of how you think the setting would look in your book
    - ii. If taking a picture of the setting - tape picture to the card
    - iii. Label the setting next to the picture
  - c. Decorate the setting cards

3. Create a point of view card and tie it to the hanger
  - a. Tie another card to the point of view card to make a chain
  - b. State what point of view the story is told in
    - i. Tell me how you know what point of view the story is in, in at least 1 sentence
  - c. If the story is in first person, draw and color or take a picture of the character telling the story, label that character
  - d. Decorate the point of view cards

4. Create a character card and tie it to the hanger
  - a. Tie another card(s) to the character card to make a chain
  - b. Pick the main character(s) in the story
  - c. Either draw or take a picture and print of the main character(s) in the story on separate cards
    - i. If taking a picture of the character - tape picture to the card
  - d. Label the names of the character(s) on their own card
  - e. Decorate the character cards

5. In the middle of the hanger tie a picture of the book title, author, and your name

Ms. Hannah's 3rd Grade Class

Ms. Hannah's 3rd Grade Class

Book Moblie

Children's 3rd Grade Literacy Project

	Proficient 3 Points	Emerging 1 Points	Beginning 0 Points
Creativity	Each topic has it's own section of cards, The project uses a variety of colors and designs. The cards are hole punched and hanging on the hanger by a string. Each card is categorized in the correct spot.	Each topic has it's own section of cards. The project uses some color and designs. Some of the cards are decorated and/or some of the cards you could not read the content. The cards are hole punched and hanging on the hanger by a string. Each card is categorized in the correct spot.	There is no sections of cards and the cards are hung with no reason. The project does not use a variety of colors and/or designs. The cards are not legible.
Plot	The plot summary is well thought out from the story, and outlines the most important details. There is at least 5 sentences describing the story.	The plot summary highlights some of the main points of the story. There is less than 5 sentences to describe the story.	There is no plot wrote on a card.
Setting(s)	There is either a picture colored and drawn from an illustration from the story, or a picture taken from a real life scene to represent a scene in the story. The picture of the scene is labeled on the card.	There is a picture drawn and colored but does not relate to the story, there is a picture taken from an illustration from the story but it does not show the main scene of the story, or there is a picture taken from a real life scene that does not represent a scene from the story. The picture of the scene is not labeled on the card.	There is no pictures drawn or taken to represent the setting(s) of the story on a card.
Point of View	The point of view from the book is stated and the student will tell how they know it is that point of view. If it is told in first person, a picture is drawn or taken of the character telling the story.	The point of view is stated, but it does not state how they know what point of view it is. If it is told in first person, a picture is not drawn on the character telling the story.	There is no point of view wrote on a card.
Character(s)	At least one main character is chosen from the story. A picture is drawn or taken of the character in the story. Each main character is labeled on the card.	At least one main character is chosen from the story. There is no picture drawn or taken of the character in the story. The main characters are labeled on the card.	There is no character(s) wrote or shown on the card(s).
Author, Title, Designer Name	In the middle of the hanger, there is a picture of the cover of the book stating the author and title of the story. On the backside, the designer's name is stated.	In the middle of the hanger, there is no picture of the cover of the book. There is only a card with the author and title wrote in the middle. On the backside of the card, the designer's name is stated.	There is no author, title, designer name in the middle of the hanger.